LAW TO PROTECT ILL BORN URGED

Resolution Is Passed by The Women's Bar
Association.

Enactment of laws to protect children born out of wedlock will be urged on Congress, according to a resolution passed last night at the regular fall meeting of the Women's Bar Association of the District, held at the home of its president, Miss Ida M. Moyers, 1651 Harvard terrace.

Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey, chairman of a committee which has been investigating child welfare, recommended that the association use its influence in that direction.

It was decided at the meeting to bring to the notice of other women bar associations the need for a national body. It was said that the increasing number of women lawyers in this country has made this step advisable.

Delegates' reports were read by Miss Mary O'Toole, Miss Emma M. Gillett, Mrs. E. S. Mussey and Miss Laura Berrien. Those admitted to membership last night were Olive M. Jack, Beale W. Newsom, Grace I. Rohleder, Anna L. Cooke, Hope K. Thompson and Maud Napier.

14 Become Members of Confederate Veterans Sons

Fourteen were elected to membership in Washington Camp, No. 305, Sons of Confederate Veterans, at a meeting last night at the Confederate Home, 1222 Vermont avenue northwest.

Plans were made for a ball to be given October 29, at 2600 Sixteenth street northwest, in honor of the sponsor for the Washington camp, the maid of honor and the camp's newly elected officers.

Those who became members last night were: Jesse Anthony, Jr., Herbert M. Frank, Spears Hovely, Stephen E. Morgan, John F. Little, Thomas S. Pionman, Arthur D. Byrd, Claude M. Middlebrooks, James C. Davenport, William F. Waite, William D. Upshaw, Lucius C. Upshaw, Buford Jones, Jr., William M. Locke.
